FRANCE GETS AN ISLAND.
JOE, THE BAKER, LEAVES.
GANDHI'S SKY-WALKING.
A WISE GERMAN.

A decision, rendered by the Italian king, Emanuel, in favor of France, against Mexico, may promote better Italian-French feeling.

Lost in the Pacific ocean, 870 miles west of the Mexican coast, is a little island, called by the English, Clipperton Rock, and by the Mexicans, La Isla De La Pasion. "The Isle of the Passion," France and Mexico claimed it, and agreed to let King Victor Emanuel arbitrate. Now, 22 years later, Emanuel gives the island to France, ordering Mexicans to withdraw their little body of soldiers.

It is a low rock, not able to support human life. But it has a lagoon in the center, and in war, it might be important as a base for seaplanes.

France knows what flying will mean in the next war, and neglects nothing connected with it. That is more than you can say for the United States, which doesn't know what flying will mean, and neglects many things connected with it.

"Joe the baker," known to his mother and early friends as Joseph Catania, is dead. With his mouth shut tight, refusing to tell who shot him, he struggled against a flock of machine gun bullets, and succumbed, eliminated because he interfered with bootlegging in the territory of "Dutch" Schultz, the "Bronx beer baron."

Thus far, not one of many gangsters shot down has told police who killed him, although a majority of them know. Perhaps they thought they would not die.

"Joe the Baker" was one of the New York gangsters that had the honor of entertaining a distinguished New York City judge at a welcome home dinner.

CHICAGO FIRM IN MARKET FOR Y. & O. RAILWAY

Trolley Line Operators
Negotiate With Prospective Buyers

SCHEDULED SALE POSTPONED AGAIN

Majority Of Bonds Deposited
With Protective Committee

Announcing that a company in Chicago, Ill., is negotiating for the purchase of the Youngstown & Ohio River railroad, representatives of the rail system, whose properties have been on the block at public sale repeatedly without success, obtained a postponement of action in common pleas court Wednesday afternoon.

Sanctions New Date
Judge W. F. Lones sanctioned the establishment of a new date, Tuesday, Feb. 24, for the next attempt at sale.

Counsel representing all interests, including the Chicago company reputedly seeking to purchase the railroad, appeared in court and agreed to further postponement by J. D. Dewese, special master.

In the group was Max Goodman, vice president of the Y. & O. company, who originally promoted the construction of the road.

Counsel for the company explained that should a sale be effected on Feb. 24, they expect that the railroad will continue to operate indefinitely for the benefit of the bond holders' protective committee which now represents all but approximately $25,000 of the outstanding bonds.

Held Majority Of Bonds
The original bond issue was $1,200,000 and all but the $25,000 were deposited with the protective committee.

It has been explained by the court that should any person suffer injury through an accident on the railroad, such person is without redress, under present conditions.

AWAITS CHANCE FOR SPEED DASH

Captain Malcolm Campbell Again
Grooms Car; Four Smaller
Machines In Trial Events

(By Associated Press)

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., Feb. 5.—While Captain Malcolm Campbell again groomed his huge Bluebird II machine for an assault upon the land speed record of 231 miles an hour, four smaller cars were entered today in trials for class speed records.

Campbell planned to make his attempt at low tide, conditions permitting. Low tide occurs about 3:45 p. m. (E. S. T.).

Besides his giant racing car, Captain Campbell also has brought from England a midsize four cylinder car, in which he hopes to set a new speed record for automobiles having a piston displacement less than 45 cubic inches.

Campbell was prevented from making an attack upon the world's record yesterday because of a high wind that swept the natural speedway at the beach and blew soft sand over the course. He hoped velocity of the wind, which he estimated yesterday at 40 miles an hour, would abate by this afternoon.

TWO KILLED IN CROSSING CRASH

Ohio University Professor, Superintendent of Coshocton County
Schools Train Victims

(By Associated Press)

COSHOCTON, Feb. 5.—Prof. George H. Crow of Ohio university, Athens, and superintendent of Coshocton county schools, H. D. Pigman were killed when their automobile was struck by a speeding passenger train here last night.

The accident occurred at the Chestnut street crossing where a watchman is on duty only about 10 p. m. The educators approached the crossing after that hour, but evidently believed it was still guarded for they slowed down only slightly.

The train carried their machine several hundred feet and both men were killed instantly.

Earlier in the evening Prof. Crow had given a lecture at the local high school. The two men were on their way home when they were killed.

From Indiana

The suit of F. J. Harding against the City of Salem in which the plaintiff seeks damages allegedly sustained by his family in the typhoid fever epidemic of 1920 is expected to be submitted to the jury Friday afternoon, attorneys announced here today.

Call Expert Witness
The case is now in progress in common pleas court No. 2 in Lisbon with Judge J. C. Ogilvie of Carroll county presiding.

Expert testimony will be offered in behalf of the city today by Miss Eleanor J. Robinson, of South Bend, Ind., called by the municipality's attorneys to Columbia county especially for this case. Miss Robinson was employed in Salem as laboratory technician during the fever epidemic.

It is the fourth court appearance of the Harding damage suit, the case having previously been taken before the common pleas and appeals courts of the county in 1927 and eventually reached Ohio supreme court in Columbus, from which point it was sent back to common pleas.

Action is "Test" Case
The action is a "test" case, the result of which is expected to have important bearing on the outcome of 19 other similar suits which have been filed against the city. All cases originating in the fever epidemic are scheduled for disposal at this session of the special court.

PLAN TO BOOST APPROPRIATION AS COMPROMISE

Congress Negotiators Determined To Avoid Extra Session

$15,000,000 JUMP IS NEW PROPOSAL

Could Be Loaned For Relief Purposes To Meet
Emergencies

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Early solution of the vexing deadlock on relief legislation appeared likely today as negotiators resumed conferences determined to avoid an extra session of the new congress this spring.

A proposal to increase the drought loan appropriation by $15,000,000 with provision that in event of extreme emergency it can be loaned for human relief purposes is the basis of the compromise now being considered on the disputed $25,000,000 Red Cross relief appropriation.

Near Understanding
The senate coalition of Democrats and Republican independents which has demanded the $25,000,000 relief fund and the House Republican leaders who have steadfastly opposed a federal appropriation for relief work were represented as nearing an understanding.

"All I can say," commented Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, "is that we are now standing on technicalities in this emergency."

Closely watching the peace negotiations, President Hoover meanwhile has dispatched personal representatives to Arkansas, center of the drought trouble, to report to him on conditions.

Mr. Hoover has given no definite word to the congressional leaders in the dispute, but emissaries have gone to the capital with suggestions that the presidential declaration Tuesday had not closed the door to the loan proposal even though opposition to charity appropriations was absolute.

Senator Watson of Indiana, and McNary of Oregon, the Republican leaders, as well as Vice President Curtis, have joined in negotiations between the House Republicans and the coalition in the senate.

With the March 4 adjournment just four weeks away, the stack of appropriation bills carrying about $4,000,000,000 for next year's operation of the government as well as many funds for immediate public construction stand waiting a settlement of the relief controversy.

Once the relief contest is settled, it is believed most of these measures will be sent to the White House in short order.

Master Plumbers Propose New Code

(By Associated Press)
CANTON, O., Feb. 5.—The Master Plumbers' Association of Ohio, in state convention here, today went on record favoring enactment of a new state plumbing code. Report of a joint committee covering two years work, was adopted.

The committee recommended an enabling act setting forth 20 basic principles on which will be founded a new code to be adopted by the state board of health. A suggested draft on the code which probably will be adopted practically in its present form was also presented.

The association adopted a resolution favoring enactment of a law requiring the examination and licensing of master plumbers.

The convention is to close late today with the election of officers. It was indicated that E. E. Klein of Cincinnati probably will be elected state president without opposition.

Farmers' Meeting To Be Postponed

A meeting of officers and leaders of rural organizations to study recreational material for their programs, which was to have been held at the Lisbon grange hall on Feb. 10, will be held at a later date.

Illness in the family of R. B. Tom, recreation specialist of the Ohio extension service who was to have been in charge of the meeting, prompts the postponement.

Officers of many of the granges, farm bureaus, parent-teacher associations, and other organizations were planning to attend. A course consisting of three meetings was planned. It is now expected that the work will be given next winter.

Former Senator In Ohio Ends Own Life

WARREN, O., Feb. 5.—R. E. Hempe, 46, a former state senator from this district, was found shot to death in his offices at Parkman, near here. The coroner gave a verdict of suicide.

Church

Missionary societies of Salem churches will observe the annual day of prayer on Feb. 20. The service will be at Holy Trinity English Lutheran church. The program will be "Witnesses."

In the United States, the day was first observed by women. Later an increasing number of young people's groups participated. Each year more children's meetings are held in connection with the observance, while men of various churches also are attending the meetings.

From reports on the day's observance it is learned that in 1,700 places in the United States interdenominational meetings have been held, with every state in the Union represented.

WILL EVACUATE CITY OF NAPIER

Refugees Sent To Camps;
Death Toll Continues
To Climb

(By Associated Press)
NAPIER, NEW ZEALAND, Feb. 5.—Frightened by new tremors which toppled standing buildings about the heads of rescue squads, authorities today speeded up complete evacuation of this once beautiful seaport.

An appeal was sent to railroad officials at Wellington to provide the rolling stock necessary to take refugees from this city and the surrounding country to camps where they can be cared for until sanitary conditions can be restored here.

Death Toll Climbs
With every hour the death toll has mounted and tonight Red Cross officials said the number of dead in Napier, Hastings and surrounding villages stricken by Tuesday's quakes, would mount well past 1,000. Thousands are injured and virtually everyone is homeless.

Desire of the stricken citizenry to make last visits to the shambles which were their homes is complicating evacuation. Many have insisted upon returning to their former residences and searching for their valuables, relics and the like. The authorities have clamped down on this as dangerous and as liable to result in further casualties.

Pestilence Feared
The sewage systems have all been destroyed and if any great number of people remain in the devastated zone much longer pestilence may be expected. The British steamer, Veronica, which was in the harbor when the quake occurred, has asked for new demolition stores to level buildings which are considered hazardous.

Chickens Stolen At Damascus Farm

DAMASCUS, Feb. 5.—Theft of 37 chickens from the farm of James Cameron, living one mile south of Damascus, was reported to Columbiana county authorities today.

The chickens are believed to have been taken Tuesday night.

Not Hard To See

DURANT, OKLA., Feb. 5.—I see by tonight's paper where Mr. Hoover dispatched a flyer to Arkansas and the stricken area to see how bad things were. He could have sent a blind man and found out.

The Red Cross is feeding 70 counties in this state. Every town is feeding people, yet the ones that have it sure do help.

We played morning, afternoon and night in three small towns, all under 6,000 population, and the three paid over $10,000 in admissions. They did that because they know it's needed.

If the rest of the country could just get woke up like that and quit waiting on the government.

Look at the farmers; they have been promised relief since Lincoln's first administration.

Yours,
Will Rogers

ON TRIAL

"I am willing to pledge myself that if the time should ever come that the voluntary agencies of the country together with the local and state government are unable to find resources with which to prevent hunger and suffering in my country, I will ask the aid of every resource of the federal government because I would no more see starvation amongst our countrymen than would any senator or congressman."

With this statement by President Hoover, America's spirit of charity is placed on trial. There is no reason to believe that the President has anything in mind other than that which is obvious—the "voluntary agencies" are unable to find resources, the central government must find them. He has not backed down from his positive stand that the spirit of charity, manifested in contributions to the Red Cross, is sufficient to meet the situation; he has not weakened his stand in opposition to the direct appropriation sought by some members of congress to relieve drought-sufferers and unemployed. He has only said that if the people should be so destitute or so cold-hearted that they would refuse to hear the call of need, and if the states were incapable of taking care of their citizens, that money in the federal treasury ought to be turned back to the public. He does not believe that such a thing will happen, however. Ordinary patriotism prevents anyone believing it.

The decision rests with the people. The $10,000,000 fund sought by the Red Cross should have been raised long before this, and if the situation had not been muddled by ill-timed legislation in congress it probably would have been, as it is, the goal still is discouragingly remote. If America fails to reach it, a valuable principle is endangered seriously. As the President has said, "this is not an issue as to whether people shall go hungry or cold in the United States. It is solely a question of the best method by which hunger and cold shall be prevented."

The "best method" is voluntary charity. If America fails to vindicate it by generous contributions a tremendous problem is created. The first step toward the justly dreaded dole has been taken.

"LIFE AS USUAL"

A distinguishing characteristic of the last year has been prosperity propaganda. Though it has been serviceable to a certain extent in cushioning the shock of the depression, it is subject to sharp criticism for its misuse and misinterpretations. Inexperience in meeting a depression with propaganda was largely responsible, no doubt.

Philip LeBoutillier, president of the National Retail Dry Goods association, expressed his criticism in an address to delegates of the association in a convention recently. He said, "the American consumer is perfectly capable of judging when and how much he will buy. Prosperity by propaganda, of which this country has had large doses, is harmful. The United States is the richest country on earth, and when prices are right, buying proceeds."

And there it is, in a nutshell. Despite Mr. LeBoutillier's apparent aversion to slogans he has coined a winner, worthy to take the place of all the thousands of "buy now's" that were flaunted over the length and breadth of the land when business felt itself slipping. "When prices are right, buying proceeds."

Propaganda is not going to push business up the grade, even though it did slow up the descent. Stimulation of confidence, the result sought by slogans, can best be accomplished with incontrovertible evidence placed before the consumer to convince him that he is foolish if he doesn't buy.

He is capable; he recognizes values when he sees them. When he has the means and the need he will buy, and not before.

The following excerpt from an article in "nation's business" contains an appropriate idea:

"One would think, from the wailing, that we had all been wiped out by a terrible catastrophe of nature—a Noah's flood, a shifting of the gulf stream, or by dreadful holocaust. Yet we are all here. The stores are still open. The trains are running. You can get that number on the telephone. The problem is still lively. Movie houses are no nearer seating all their customers. Children are what they always were. Young folks are getting married. Doctors and dentists make appointments weeks ahead. Lawyers' briefs are just as long. Hardy commuters make the 8:15 in less than nothing flat. And under nature's white coverlet, bud and blossom await the sure coming of spring.

"If these commonplace signs of 'life as usual' betoken national instability, then there is a public menace in the familiar warning: 'Danger! Men at work.'"

What Others Say

THE VISIT FROM EROS.

As is not unsuitable for a planet named after the god of love, tiny Eros has presented the astronomers this last month with several surprises. The visit of this small twenty-mile world to our neighborhood has constituted, as we have explained already in these columns, the nearest approach of any major body of the solar system to the earth for many years and the first such approach to be studied thoroughly by the astronomers. There were no surprises about the planetoid's arrival. It showed up on time, it was about in the expected orbit, its deviations from this orbit which will be used presently to weigh the sun more accurately than ever before seem to have been about of the expected character and magnitude. The mathematical calculations which will provide, it is expected, more accurate values for this weight of the sun, for the distance of the earth from that body and for the whole size and scale and weight of the solar system will require months.

No telescope is powerful enough to show the actual surface of the tiny world even at its nearest distance of some 16,000,000 miles. But one thing about Eros any astronomer can measure, even through a relatively small telescope. This is the hour-to-hour variation of the planetoid's light. As its last visit such a variation was detected and was ascribed to the rotation of the planetoid, one side being assumed darker than the other so that the reflected sunlight waxed and waned as the small body turned on its axis.

On the present visit, it has been announced by the Harvard observatory, a similar variation was detected as the planetoid first appeared, but has now vanished, so that the body now shines with a nearly uniform light. Several explanations of this unexpected appearance are possible. One, for example, is that the direction of the planetoid's axis also changes slowly, so that one of the poles is now pointed in our direction and makes the rotation ineffective on the reflected light. A more interesting possibility is that the difference between the two sides of the asteroid may be one of shape instead of color. Eros may be a square or angular chunk of material instead of a ball. Such a conclusion would be of extraordinary interest for theories of the origin of the asteroids. It would simply mean that these numerous tiny planets are irregular fragments of some exploded larger body instead of spherical accumulations of gaseous or viscous materials like the solar system's larger worlds.—New York Herald Tribune.

NEW YORK

Day by Day
by O.O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The Bowery struggles through one of the worst winters in its turbulent history. Its missions shivering the heaviest burden in more than a decade. For months the depressing breadline has been a serpentine coil circling every block.

Only the pawnbroker prospered in the topsy-turvy times that shunted even a few Fifth Avenue dwellers to the section. A number of upstairs lodging houses had their quota of beaten who once sat at glass-topped desks, commanding their world by push buttons.

Most newcomers to the "submerged tenth" spend their first few weeks in sullen resentment. Misfortune has stunned them and they drop in lodging chairs inarticulate. Almost all during their novitiate believe suicide offers the only panacea.

But generally in a month they begin to take an interest in life again. Like a startled dummer swimming up from a deep well of sleep, they look about their new world. Indeed, the lazy tempo of drifting becomes pleasant.

Every man who remains on the Bowery for a year or so becomes philosophical. He is whetted to versatility. Want becomes a casual emotion and nothing matters. Those who have fumed over a fifth row seat at a first night, accept a free flop on a hard floor with perfect complacency.

Social workers know that the dole is often a necessity, but just the same dangerous. Free coffee and free flops frequently dull self respect, and when that quality is lost the problem of rehabilitation becomes more difficult than ever.

The Bowery is a human barometer that registers acutely depths of depression, but it is first to register signs of returning prosperity. When the bread line vanishes, smoke from factory chimneys is inevitable. And slowly today the breadline is thinning.

The philosophy of the Bowery is illustrated somewhat by the remark of a friend of Chuck Conners when that worthy passed to his reward. A group of mourners clotted in front of the blue-bobbed undertaker's parlor where the body was taken. The friend sauntered up. "Don't worry about Chuck," he said. "He knows what it is all about now. That's more than we know!"

This is a paragraphic paean for a friend who donned the starched front to attend a dinner and theater. At the dinner a dribble of dark soup splashed his snowy bosom. He excused himself and went home to bed. No play is worth changing a stiff shirt.

Any number of eating places—especially tea rooms—in New York operate hat and cloak rooms without an attendant. A patron leaves his things when entering and picks them out on departure. Most of these places have never had a loss by theft. This careless gesture is inspired by an old police known fact. A crook seldom visits a respectable modestly priced cafe. When he deserts "beaneries" for a splurge, he goes to the jazziest and expensive places.

My only conscious contact with an underworld swell was as a reporter with a New York paper. I accompanied a Central Office man for surprise roundup in an apartment on West End avenue. The gentleman in doggy dressing gown received us in a library-like room. It suggested the opening act of a crook drama. After dispatching a few mysterious telephone calls and habiting himself in street dress, he accompanied his captor coolly. Under a reading lamp was the book he had turned pages down at our ring. It was one of the Elsie Dismore books. I stressed this observation in my report, but but it was blue penciled. "No reader will believe that," said the city editor.

In that day—the late '90s—New York was in full gestation of poisoned needle mysteries. I was a misguided solecist who classed it all as "bunk"—a rising new world in the lexicon. Then one evening on an Amsterdam avenue summer car I felt a stinging jab. "They got me!" I whispered to my wife. And reeled off the car into a nearby drug store. It developed I had leaned against the sharp prong of a pantsbuckle.

The Stars Say
For Friday, Feb. 6

While there may be a fairly lively state of affairs on this day, judging by the lunar transits, yet there are many adverse and hazardous signs. A disruptive or radical situation may suddenly be present, with unfavorable bearing on conditions generally. There are perils in employment and menace to finance, as well as an unfortunate reaction on the purely private relations. Strange propositions and personalities are warned against, also speculation and excesses.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for a year of some sudden visitation which may be disruptive to plans and upsetting to the environment and peace of mind. Strange projects may lure, under a degree of pressure and personal impetus, but the situation is precarious to funds, employment and private happiness. A child born on this day may be energetic, fond of adventure and strange experiences, but these may prove detrimental to its stable success and personal progress and happiness. It should have frugality, responsibility and steadiness instilled in its early years.

How to Escape
FLU

1 Avoid so far as possible the places where flu germs are most likely to be spread; overcrowded cars and public meeting places; overheated, stuffy rooms.

2 Be careful of close contact with others and beware of all coughers and sneezers; breathe through the nose, get fresh air, but avoid drafts or chilling.

3 Get lots of rest. Eat plenty of citrus fruits. Keep the bowels open. Take extra precautions to keep in good physical condition, so your system will have high resistance against germs.

4 Above all, avoid catching colds. They lower your resistance to the flu germ. Ward them off. At the first sign of any cold, take Bayer Aspirin and remain indoors if possible until your cold is gone. If you have a sore throat, dissolve some Bayer Aspirin tablets in water and gargle; this will relieve the soreness and reduce the inflammation.

5 If you have any reason to suspect even a touch of flu, call your doctor at once.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

DIPHTHERIA PREVENTABLE
Diphtheria is a highly contagious disease, most prevalent among children. It is a preventable disease. It is a shame to have it included among the dangers of childhood.

There has been a great reduction in the number of deaths caused by diphtheria. It is the hope and aim of all public health officials to eradicate this dangerous ailment entirely. This can be accomplished only when there is complete cooperation of the public.

This disease is caused by the diphtheria germ which finds its way to the nose or throat. There it multiplies in number. Its presence is shown by a greyish membrane which may interfere with breathing.

Kissing Transfers Germs
The germs produce a toxin, a powerful poison. This is quickly absorbed into the blood stream, causing general poisoning of the system.

The germs of diphtheria may be transferred from one person to another by kissing. They may be carried in the spray produced by coughing, sneezing and talking. Drinking cups or other utensils used by an infected person serve as a common means of transmission.

The possibility of contamination by the germs of this disease is particularly great in crowded and congested communities. Moreover there are persons who carry these germs without knowing they have them. Such persons are spoken of as "carriers."

How can we combat this disease? Fortunately, we have at our disposal the knowledge of diphtheria "antitoxin." This is widely used in the treatment and cure. Diphtheria may be prevented by the use of the "toxin-anti-toxin" injections. When this treatment is given, it enables children to go through life without contracting the disease, even though exposed to it.

Test for Possible Victims
By means of the "Schick test" we can determine whether a person, if exposed to diphtheria, will contract the disease. The procedure is simple and may be applied by any physician or by the local health bureau.

If all our people would cooperate by having their children inoculated against diphtheria, this disease would soon disappear.

We rarely hear of cases of smallpox. It is, indeed, a rarity. Nowadays most students go through medical school without ever seeing a case of smallpox. At one time this was an exceedingly common disease and caused many deaths. Since the rigid insistence upon vaccination against smallpox, this disease has become extremely rare.

Diphtheria is another disease which will disappear when we all help.

GROWTH FACTOR SUBSTITUTE IS NEW DISCOVERY

Synthetic Vitamin A Is Found At W. Virginia University

(By Associated Press) MORGANTOWN, W. VA., Feb. 5.—A synthetic substitute for vitamin A, the growth factor, has been found at the University of West Virginia.

The substance is a combination of iodine, fats and iron. It is a thing mysterious about it. Thus it has been tried only on rats and the results were obtained simply by giving them along with meals ferrous oxide which contains the iodine and iron, and oleic acid, which has the fats.

Apparent Ability to Synthesize
In reporting the discovery to the American Association for the Advancement of Science, Dr. F. E. Linder says: "Without forcing the animal, we have demonstrated that for those that will assume the linoleic acid and ferrous oxide combination there is apparent ability to synthesize vitamin A."

Apparently the chemicals contain about the same substance as vitamin A for the scientist expects the vitamin is rich in unsaturated fats, iodine, iron and a number of other minerals. He says rats which otherwise would die for lack of vitamin A, live for 10 months merely by feeding them ferrous oxide. But they died to grow.

When the fats were added the response was almost magic. Some of the rats were nearly dead, but showed improvement in a few days.

Related To Fats In Diet
This ability of a living body to supply its own vitamin by natural chemical synthesis appears closely related to certain fats in diet. Dr. Linder's report refers particularly to the discovery recently by another scientist, Dr. H. M. Evans of the University of California, that fatty acids from coconut oil are beneficial in the deficiency vitamin B. This is the nerve vitamin.

The West Virginia work is a promise of the second artificial aid for vitamin supplies. The first is ultraviolet light.

PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR MORE JOBS

Pittsburgh Business Men Hope To Stabilize Employment

(By Associated Press) PITTSBURGH, Feb. 5.—Leading Pittsburgh business men are preparing to deliver a blow to old man and times, having formed plans which they believe will stabilize employment in the Pittsburgh district.

Leaders of the movement were hopeful that they had hit upon an effective plan for dealing with the unemployment situation that would provide an example for the rest of the country.

Plan Employment Agency
Establishment of an employment agency will be an initial step in carrying out the plans. The program will be financed by several methods, as follows: First, by canvass of 3,000 employers of the Pittsburgh district on the basis of contribution of an average day's payroll for 1929, expected to yield more than $1,000,000; second, by solicitation of public-spirited citizens, and third, by solicitation of employed persons unaffected by the depression, on the basis of one day's pay. In the program are several recommendations to be considered by Allegheny County Emergency Association, the name under which the business men have organized.

Financed By Association
Under a plan submitted by Edgar J. Kauffmann, Pittsburgh department store head, the employment of persons who have been registered with the employment agency would be financed by the association. Kauffmann said that if the city appropriated $500,000 for certain work, the association would propose that the entire amount be spent for materials and that the labor would be furnished and financed by the association, doubling the amount of work to be provided.

The men thus employed would be engaged in projects of a public, semi-public and private or corporate nature.

The Kauffmann plan was submitted to Gov. Gifford Pinchot for his approval. The governor has appointed unemployment relief committees throughout the state to study employment problems.

TAX COMMITTEE MAY BE FORMED

Unit To Prepare Legislation For Assembly Is Proposed

(By Associated Press) COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 5.—Selections of a committee of six, three each from the senate and house, to prepare tax legislation for consideration of the Ohio general assembly was expected today as a result of the refusal last night of Governor White to appoint three additional members as provided in a joint resolution.

The joint resolution originating in the senate was adopted by the house and provided a committee of nine members, three to be appointed by the governor, if he chose to follow the legislature's suggestion. It previously had been approved in the senate.

Refusal of the governor to concur in the suggestions of the resolution left the senate and house the task of selecting a committee of six to prepare and submit a bill under the classification tax amendment approved in 1929 by the electors. Lieutenant Governor William G. Pickrel, presiding officer of the senate, said he would appoint three senators as recommended by the Republicans and Democrats in that body. Senator D. H. DeArmond, Hamilton, Democratic minority leader, announced that he would call a caucus of the Democrats to choose their representative. Senator Earl R. Lewis, St. Clairsville, Republican majority leader, is expected to name his two committee men.

CHAPLIN SPEAKS UP FOR TALKIES

But Doesn't Think They Have Same Beauty As Silent Films

BY DAVID P. SENTNER, International News Service Dramatic Editor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Charlie Chaplin, wordless comedian, for years recorded as an arch-foe to the talking motion pictures, today spoke up for the "talkies."

"I am not opposed to the talking moving picture as an invention and am planning perhaps to direct a screen drama with dialogue for my next production," Chaplin said in an interview. "However, I shall not appear in the picture."

New Picture Opens
Screenland's first pantomimist has arrived here for the opening of his latest picture, "City Lights," interpreted by critics as a defiance to the talkie industry. The picture has sound-music composed by Chaplin himself—but no dialogue. There is also a "gurgling" scene in it which Chaplin admitted was a satire on the talkies.

Chaplin's first publicity announced conversion to the talkies was tinged with his traditional individual viewpoint.

"The talkies have a great deal of vitality—they have added something to the silent medium," he said. "Of course, they are here to stay—but I prefer to appear without dialogue."

"If I ever do a talkie it will not be as Charlie Chaplin."

He denied that his latest picture was "a slap in the face" at the talking pictures.

"Something To Entertain"
"I simply feel that my picture is something to entertain and the public will come to see it even if there are no words to it," he said.

"Talkies are easier to make. I don't think there is the same beauty in talkies as in silent pictures."

There are not any talkies yet which can compare with the great silent pictures.

His plan to direct a dialogue picture was based on a desire to experiment with a new artistic medium, he said.

Hines Proposes Disability Cut

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—A cut in the disability allowances of World War veterans while undergoing hospitalization at government expense was proposed today by veterans Administrator Hines.

Before the senate finance committee, he suggested this step to remove an "incentive among temporarily disabled men to remain in government institutions too long."

The reduction would not apply to veterans already in hospitals or soldiers' homes, he said, but would be made effective on future cases. The cut would remain in effect only during hospitalization, the normal payments being resumed upon discharge from the hospital.

PORTSMOUTH, O., Feb. 5.—A not guilty plea was made yesterday by Arthur Worthier, Lancaster grocer, in the death of his wife Thanksgiving night. He said she shot herself after a reconciliation failed.

48 ACCUSATIONS AGAINST CANNON

Documentary Evidence In Bishop's Trial May End Today

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The board of inquiry investigating charges against Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, expected today to conclude taking documentary evidence against the accused prelate. Faces 48 Accusations

There are 48 separate accusations in the bill of indictment being presented. Much of the evidence deals with charges other than those made to the general conference at Dallas last summer when Bishop Cannon was cleared of stock gambling accusations.

Today's chief witness was Frank Morgan, a Richmond, Virginia, detective. Morgan was said to have worked for months developing the evidence now being laid before the 12 elders hearing the charges. If the documents are found to have weight in the minds of the board, Bishop Cannon will be suspended until 1934 and brought to trial before the general conference.

Morgan was recalled today by department of justice officials as one of the special agents who developed the case against Gaston B. Means which sent him to Atlanta to serve a term for perjury in connection with the oil trials.

George Adams Testifies
George P. Adams, secretary and treasurer of the Blackstone Female institute, at Blackstone, Virginia, took up the time of a long night session held last night at the request of Bishop Cannon. The nature of his testimony was not revealed. The temperance leader appeared at Mount Vernon Place Methodist church again on crutches and accompanied by his son, James Cannon, third, and Dr. J. Sidney Peters, of Richmond. Dr. Peters is sitting in the hearings as is Bishop Cannon's

TODAY

free India is "written in the skies if we follow the path of truth and non-violence."

Few victories have been won by non-violence. In fact, no nation ever won freedom except by fighting for it.

In the opinion of at least 200,000,000 Hindus, a successful "holy crusade" would include the right to restore child marriage, without restriction, the burning of widows, and a system of reverence for animal life, cows especially, that allows the miserably animals, when they get old, to die of hunger, because no one has the right to kill them.

Germany possesses an appallingly wise person named Dr. George Joos, professor of theoretical physics at Jena.

The wavelength of a ray of light is from one twenty-five thousandth to one fifth thousandth of an inch in length. The marvelous Joos can measure the one-thousandth part of that.

This enables him to prove that there is no "ether drift" and that the speed of light is absolute. In some mysterious way, Dr. Joos confirms Einstein's theories. Sometimes you are sorry you cannot understand all that, and sometimes you thank heaven for your ignorance.

Copper Tuesday dropped to nine and a half cents a pound, less than the cost of production in all but a few mines. Silver has fallen so far that it recalls to silver men the story of the cloak and suit man, who said: "There is only one price in my place."

"What is that?" some one asked. "Anything you offer me."

Many, outside of silver production, know how the cloak and suit man felt.

Previous to 1931 the Bible had been translated in 886 languages. Now the 887th is added, that of the Indian aborigines of Guatemala.

This language, called the "Mam" tongue, dates from the ancient Mayas and is hard to learn.

One verse, from St. John, according to Rev. Dr. North would read: "Kun ictsun ju ulakj tanmi dios qui Nal."

The word "dios" in that text, evidently is borrowed from the Spanish, the Guatemalan Indians, perhaps having no name for the Christian kind of God.

Guatemala Indians, like the North American Indians, when Catholic fathers first visited them long ago, will be interested principally in the Biblical descriptions of fights and victories. The destruction of the walls of Jericho, and the command "slay and spare not" including men, women, and children will appeal to their primitive religious instinct.

But some undoubtedly will read the sermon on the mount, which will do them good, if they know what it is about.

The Wickersham prohibition committee, appointed to investigate crime of all kinds, technically called "law enforcement commission" will soon relate its discoveries about crime in the United States. Statistics concerning robbery, murder, all around banditry and the absence of punishment and control, will grieve those who felt sure that when prohibition came in, crime would go out.

EINSTEIN TELLS OF NEW THEORY

New Discovery Makes Former Conceptions Inadequate

(By International News Service)
PASADENA, CAL., Feb. 5.—Still surprised a group of physicists and astronomers who heard Prof. Albert Einstein's explanation of his "unified field" theory today were reflecting on the scientist's disclosure that he has evolved a new theory of cosmology.

Speaking before an audience of noted astronomers and physicists at the Mt. Wilson observatory astronomy seminary yesterday, Prof. Einstein disclosed that new conception of space derived from his recently announced "unified field" theory were responsible for the change in concept.

The eminent scientist's words left no doubt among his listeners that he had abandoned the former theory of the Einstein universe, a concept which was shared by several foreign astronomers. He said the relativity theory in the light of new discovery had become inadequate.

"Space never can be anything similar to the old symmetrical spherical space theory, no matter what equations are employed," he says by way of explanation in concluding his address.

The unified field theory leaves no room for the theory of a "closed" universe. Prof. Einstein explained to Dr. Walter S. Adams, director of the observatory.

His words were interpreted to mean that in the new equation no room is left for a symmetrical spherical universe of definite outlines. Thus space, under the new theory, cannot be confined and the universe becomes infinite.

Under the theories of relativity the universe was pictured as a semi-limited creation—limited by the curvature of space "bending upon itself." It is this theory that Einstein has been forced to abandon, he indicated in his talk.

EXPECTS FIRST DEGREE COUNTS

Prosecutor Hoskins Estimates Four Murder Indictments

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 5.—County Prosecutor Donald Hoskins said today that he expects to seek at least four first degree murder indictments when the grand jury takes up an investigation next month of the Ohio penitentiary fire which claimed 320 lives last April.

Evidence involving convicts in a plot to burn one of the prison cell blocks so they might escape in the confusion has been prepared and will be presented to the grand jury, the prosecutor indicated. He said that he will rely on a report compiled by Joseph D. Clear, special investigator for the state fire marshal's office.

It was rumored here that the report contains a confession by a convict from Akron that he supplied candles used in making a crude bomb through which the fire was set. It also has been reported that investigators found the actual perpetrator of the fire, a Cleveland robber, died in the trap he had set.

Lose Fat Safely and Quickly

Kruschen Salts—a perfect combination of the six mineral salts your body should have to function properly—purify your blood of harmful acids, and aid the kidneys and bowels to throw off waste material—the continual formation of which is probably the cause of your fat.

In this modern age of living, it's impossible to get these salts from the fancy foods you eat—but don't worry just as long as you have Kruschen Salts.

Take a half teaspoon every morning before breakfast in a glass of hot water—little by little that ugly fat disappears, you'll feel better than ever before—youthful, younger, more energy. You'll soon possess that enviable beauty, clear skin, sparkling eyes, superb figure which only perfect health can impart.

An 85c bottle lasts 4 weeks! at Lease Drug Co., and Broadway Lease Drug Store or any progressive drugist in America. Money back if Kruschen doesn't convince you that it is the safest, quickest, easiest way to lose fat.

A Hartford woman writes, "I'll tell the world Kruschen Salts is wonderful stuff to reduce." An Ohio woman lost 10 pounds with one bottle.

Inquiry Is Ordered In Plane Accident

(By International News Service)
LONDON, Feb. 5.—The British air ministry today ordered a complete inquiry into the flying accident in Plymouth Harbor yesterday when an R. A. F. tri-motored all-metal flying boat dived into the water and exploded, killing nine and injuring three.

Eye witnesses of yesterday's accident said the pilot of the bomber was apparently trying to come down on the water when the accident occurred. The plane was returning to its Plymouth base after bombing practice.

Bright sunlight dazzled the pilot, who apparently did not realize he was so close to the water. One wing touched the water and the next instant there was a violent explosion.

Rector, Despondent, Takes Poison, Dies
(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Feb. 5.—The body of Rev. Brimley Abbot, former rector of St. John's Episcopal church here, was found at the foot of the stairs in the parish house of Grace Episcopal church last night. Police said he had committed suicide by drinking poison.

The rector, police believed, was despondent over the ill health of one of his three children in England and the reported death of his brother in an airplane crash there two weeks ago. Beside the body was a two ounce bottle of poison.

Mr. Abbot had resigned last Monday as rector in order to return to his family in England. He went to the parish house to spend the night and his body was found by a group of young women who went there to rehearse a church play.

The rector, as a chaplain with Canadian troops in France during the war, officiated at the burial of the first American nurse to die overseas. He came here in 1924 from Athens, O.

Salem Varsity Cagers Oppose Warren Hi Team Friday Night

THE DAY In Sports

LEAGUE BATTLE TIGHTENS
MANY TO GO TO WARREN

Prospects for one of the stiffest tular battles in history of Salem city league competition loomed brightly as a result of contests played in the municipal Class A circuit Tuesday night in which the Grove Electric upset the championship Golden Eagle quintet by the decisive 39-27 score. The Electric were known to have improved but the team's play against the champions was really surprising. Raymond Grove seems to have found a real championship team.

Other league participants, the McArthur Florists and Electric Furnace, also displayed increased strength and it is entirely possible that one of these teams, and perhaps both, will throw league activities into further intensity by passing the Grovemen in future games. Fans will remember that after the Electric appeared as a threat to the Golden Eagle team's tular march in the first half, the Posies handed them a dose-upsetting defeat that tied the two for second and third place.

The Furnace will be further strengthened in coming games by the addition of Joe Kelley, now on the Golden Eagle roster, who is seeking a transfer. The champions, if this transfer is effected, will be forced to seek at least two more players and will probably exchange Kelley for a player now on the Posies' roster. Clyde Miller, who watched his team play from the sidelines Tuesday, may be involved in the trade, it was said at the Memorial building today.

Numerous trades appear possible as various teams seek to add power to their combinations. The Electric have greatest reserve strength but other teams, especially the Furnace and Golden Eagle are almost without it. Trades will be placed before members of the board of arbitration at a meeting planned soon.

James Primm, popular member of this board and affiliated with athletic activities of all types in this city for some years, is now recuperating from a slight illness.

Salem High basketball fans, disappointed because they were not able to witness their team in action at East Palestine and East Liverpool because of small seating capacity, will have all the space they want when they go to Warren Friday night. The new Harding High school gymnasium in which the game will be played has seating capacity to accommodate 1,500 fans and it is entirely possible that as many as 500 addicts to the cage habit in this city will trek to the Trumbull county city for the game.

Fans here will be interested in seeing the Warren court because of the fact that Salem High will this year compete there in the district game tournament. The Warren gymnasium is declared the best in Northeastern Ohio just as Salem's is easily the outstanding athletic emporium in Columbiana county.

Football season is several months past and, if Salem was a normal sporting city baseball and basketball would be occupying center of the attraction at downtown stove-league discussions. But Salem isn't an average sporting town and baseball and basketball don't occupy all the interest now even though the Quaker varsity is the best for four years here. Football continues to hog the spotlight and fans are now busily debating on what players merit places on a team selected as an all-time all-star team.

Fans are compiling a few teams and they will be presented through this column soon. Anyone can make a selection.

Joseph Corso, Salem fruit dealer, has been mentioned as Salem High's most enthusiastic all-sport fan. "Joe" goes every place along with football, basketball and track teams.

Eligibility Rules Approved At Pitt

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 5.—The University of Pittsburgh athletic council has approved a recommendation of the eligibility committee to the effect, "that even though a candidate for any team may be declared eligible at the beginning of a semester he may be declared ineligible at any time during that semester if he is not meeting with the accepted university standards of conduct and attendance."

Fight Results

Akron St. Mary's Five Will Battle Stonemen In Game Here Saturday

Salem High's varsity cage quintet, hoping to emerge from the slump which has characterized its play for the past two games against East Palestine and Ravenna, battles a pair of presumably tough tossing combines, Warren High and St. Mary's of Akron Friday and Saturday nights, respectively. The Quakers clash with Warren at Warren while St. Mary's plays here Saturday night.

Warren, steadily showing improvement after a mediocre showing early in the season, is planning to secure revenge for the humiliating defeat sustained in its invasion of Reilly athletic stadium in football last season. Victorious in only one-fourth of its games, the Trumbull county quintet nevertheless is expected to give the Red and Black a stiff battle.

Warren Wallops Massillon

Coach Pierre Hill's lads won their most impressive victory of the season when they trimmed Massillon High 36-24, Salem being pressed to win over the same team by a 28-22 count. Warren has played an on-and-off style of basketball all year, and has lost three games by one, two or three-point margins. Kenmore was defeated, 21-20, while verdicts in other games went to Brookfield, Ravenna, Sharon, Pa., Newton Falls, Youngstown South and Sharpsville.

Hill has three veterans from last year's team available but shakeups in the lineup have been made in past few games resulting in improved work of several youngsters who have forced lettermen out of the varsity. Burck and Dowdell form the forward combination with Johnson and McKinney center, and Bartlett and Garity guards.

Salem Tries Comeback

Salem High will be forced to return to its showing of games played previous to the East Palestine fracas in order to register a decisive victory against the Warrenites. In winning over Ravenna Salem failed to impress those followers who had witnessed the team triumph in eight consecutive games with a whirlwind display of cage technique and Coach Floyd Stone is working his lads hard in an effort to bring them up to form.

The Stonemen will be forced to extend themselves even further when the strong little St. Mary's combine plays here Saturday night. Former holders of the state championship title in Class B competition, St. Mary's started the season by losing three straight games but then staged great comeback to win nine consecutive contests over some of Summit county's most powerful scholastic teams.

Steuersville, easily one of South-eastern Ohio's leading quintets, was forced to the limit to defeat St. Mary's, 30-24, and Steubenville defeated Alliance, which team defeated Salem. St. Mary's also defeated Akron Elletts, 28-10, then trimmed Polk, another powerful Class B team, 35-4, using most of its second-stringers in each contest. Mount Vernon, rated almost equal to Springfield in competition in that section of Ohio, won over the Catholic school team by only a 21-19 margin.

Top Akron Scoring

The big reason for the Akron school's great showing is in the scoring performances of three of its players. Hillary, R. Garcea and J. Garcea who rate among the first ten in Akron's scholastic league scoring. Hillary last season scored 137 points while to-date he is far in the lead of any other Akron player in point-making, the Garcea brothers rating second and sixth. Rhodenbaugh, scoring guard, is eleventh in scoring, indicating that the Quakers will have to develop a powerful defense to halt either of these four lads.

SALEM GIRLS PLAY

Quaker Lassies Play At Warren On Friday; Meet Fairfield Here In Prelim Tilt Saturday

Salem High girls will exploit cage talents against Warren's classy sextet in the preliminary at Warren Friday night. Both teams have only fair records to-date, Warren holding a slight edge over the Peterson proteges.

Warren has a veteran combination available but its team has failed to flash anything outstanding as yet. Salem played its best game of the season against Columbiana last Saturday, a new combination of forwards, Susan Lutsch, Connie Tice and Ruth Jones bringing the team victory after Columbiana held what appeared to be a decisive edge for three quarters.

Saturday night the lassies battle Fairfield High in a prelim to the Salem-St. Mary's fracas. The reserve team, out after its twelfth victory in a row, matches talents with Fairfield varsity in the semifinal.

Pattin of Steubenville will handle the whistle in the games at Warren.

Those Backaches Disappear, Says Mr. Wilson

A Tired, Worn-Out Feeling, Indigestion and Constipation Have Made Me Miserable for Years

"For 15 years I have been gradually going down hill. My health was poor," says Mr. M. P. Wilson, 2153 Harvey avenue, East Liverpool, Ohio. "My bowels were always constipated. I always had to take laxatives and physics but they gave me no permanent relief. My liver was sluggish and inactive. Frequent attacks of indigestion with gas and bloating spells gave me a great deal of misery."

"I had heard a great deal about Indian herb medicines and when Owa-Ton-Na was recommended to me, I decided to try it and I certainly am glad that I did as it has made a big change in my condition. Constipation is relieved, my stomach feels fine and I feel better than I have for a long time. My kidneys have shown a wonderful improvement and those severe backaches have left me. Dizzy spells and headaches and that tired, worn-out feeling has been replaced with new pep and energy. It certainly is remarkable the way Owa-Ton-Na removes harmful poisons from the system. games by one, two or three-point margins. Kenmore was defeated, 21-20, while verdicts in other games went to Brookfield, Ravenna, Sharon, Pa., Newton Falls, Youngstown South and Sharpsville.

Hill has three veterans from last year's team available but shakeups in the lineup have been made in past few games resulting in improved work of several youngsters who have forced lettermen out of the varsity. Burck and Dowdell form the forward combination with Johnson and McKinney center, and Bartlett and Garity guards.

Salem Tries Comeback

Salem High will be forced to return to its showing of games played previous to the East Palestine fracas in order to register a decisive victory against the Warrenites. In winning over Ravenna Salem failed to impress those followers who had witnessed the team triumph in eight consecutive games with a whirlwind display of cage technique and Coach Floyd Stone is working his lads hard in an effort to bring them up to form.

The Stonemen will be forced to extend themselves even further when the strong little St. Mary's combine plays here Saturday night. Former holders of the state championship title in Class B competition, St. Mary's started the season by losing three straight games but then staged great comeback to win nine consecutive contests over some of Summit county's most powerful scholastic teams.

Steuersville, easily one of South-eastern Ohio's leading quintets, was forced to the limit to defeat St. Mary's, 30-24, and Steubenville defeated Alliance, which team defeated Salem. St. Mary's also defeated Akron Elletts, 28-10, then trimmed Polk, another powerful Class B team, 35-4, using most of its second-stringers in each contest. Mount Vernon, rated almost equal to Springfield in competition in that section of Ohio, won over the Catholic school team by only a 21-19 margin.

Top Akron Scoring

The big reason for the Akron school's great showing is in the scoring performances of three of its players. Hillary, R. Garcea and J. Garcea who rate among the first ten in Akron's scholastic league scoring. Hillary last season scored 137 points while to-date he is far in the lead of any other Akron player in point-making, the Garcea brothers rating second and sixth. Rhodenbaugh, scoring guard, is eleventh in scoring, indicating that the Quakers will have to develop a powerful defense to halt either of these four lads.

SALEM GIRLS PLAY

Quaker Lassies Play At Warren On Friday; Meet Fairfield Here In Prelim Tilt Saturday

Salem High girls will exploit cage talents against Warren's classy sextet in the preliminary at Warren Friday night. Both teams have only fair records to-date, Warren holding a slight edge over the Peterson proteges.

Warren has a veteran combination available but its team has failed to flash anything outstanding as yet. Salem played its best game of the season against Columbiana last Saturday, a new combination of forwards, Susan Lutsch, Connie Tice and Ruth Jones bringing the team victory after Columbiana held what appeared to be a decisive edge for three quarters.

Saturday night the lassies battle Fairfield High in a prelim to the Salem-St. Mary's fracas. The reserve team, out after its twelfth victory in a row, matches talents with Fairfield varsity in the semifinal.

Pattin of Steubenville will handle the whistle in the games at Warren.

A Tired, Worn-Out Feeling, Indigestion and Constipation Have Made Me Miserable for Years

"For 15 years I have been gradually going down hill. My health was poor," says Mr. M. P. Wilson, 2153 Harvey avenue, East Liverpool, Ohio. "My bowels were always constipated. I always had to take laxatives and physics but they gave me no permanent relief. My liver was sluggish and inactive. THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Smoked Fish for Breakfast or Luncheon.

"Is there any way of serving smoked fish so it won't be so very salty?" inquires one housekeeper who says her family prefer fish in this form, yet it always seems excessively briny to her.

There are several ways of alleviating this saltiness. First, soaking overnight. Most salt fish require this treatment anyway, and some of the smoked fish, like kippers and salmon are improved by soaking. Second, in the cooking. If the fish is to be broiled, then a liberal dressing of lemon juice sprinkled over the fish just before it is placed in the oven will absorb some more of the saltiness. Cooking in milk is another help.

Broiled salted fish should always be served with halves or quarters of lemon. Or with a tart tomato sauce made of fresh or canned tomatoes cooked with onion and a dash of sugar and pepper and very little salt.

Slightly heated thin cream, poured over broiled or baked salt fish will improve the flavor considerably—reduce the saltiness and bring out the appetizing tang of the fish.

Eliminating Unpleasant Washing

Kippers, haddie, herring, bloaters and all kinds of fish can be cooked so as to eliminate the unpleasant aspects of washing-up afterwards. Wrap in wet manilla paper, or better still in some of the prepared parchment paper for cooking purposes. The paper must be thoroughly moistened, then tied up so that the juice does not escape. Place in a hot oven and bake for ten to twenty minutes, depending on the size of the fish.

For a luncheon dish of substance, these smoked or salted fish can be served accompanied by cooked clams or oysters.

SHANGHAI—Chinese in Shanghai will be able to celebrate the lunar new year in mid-February without having to worry over ill omens. For several weeks this winter no snow fell in Shanghai. And the Chinese were decidedly upset because if the new lunar year comes before the arrival of snow all sorts of ill luck can and has been known to follow. Even 'ricksha coolies, who don't crave cold weather, grinned happily when Shanghai had snow early in January.

PILES

Ended Without Cutting or Salves

Thousands of Pile sufferers have learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with an internal medicine. Neither salves or cutting remove the cause.

Bad circulation of the blood in the lower bowel causes piles. The veins are flabby, the bowel walls weak—the parts almost dead. To end Piles an internal medicine must be used to stimulate the circulation and strengthen the affected parts.

Dr. J. S. Leonhardt was the first to discover a real internal Pile remedy. He called his prescription HEM-ROID, and prescribed it for 1000 patients with the marvelous record of success in 960 cases, and then decided every Pile sufferer should be able to get HEM-ROID from their own druggist with a rigid money-back guarantee.

Dr. Leonhardt's prescription has a wonderful record of success right in this city and Lease Drug Co., and Broadway Lease Drug Store invites every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees to refund the purchase price if it does not end all Pile misery. Adv

MOVIES

"PAID"

At The State
"Paid," which will be the attraction starting tonight at the State theater, is Joan Crawford's first straight dramatic starring vehicle, and is of particular interest in being the first dialogue film version of Bayard Veiller's sensational stage play "Within the Law."

Veiller also wrote "Trial of Mary Dugan" and "The Thirteenth Chair."

Briefly, the plot of "Paid" concerns a shop girl, "framed" and sent to jail for a robbery, who plots revenge on society and on the man who had her incarcerated, only to fall in love with his son. A gang killing brings the plot to a climax.

Miss Crawford's portrayal of Mary Turner, the girl sent to prison although innocent, is done with a depth and understanding that comes as a revelation even to those who have had every confidence in the young actress. Her performance is a flawless one and is destined to rank with that of Jane Cowl who created the role on the stage 18 years ago.

Supporting Miss Crawford is a large cast including Robert Armstrong, Marie Prevost, Kent Douglas, John Miljan, Purnell Pratt, Hale Hamilton, Robert Emmett O'Connor and others.

"REDUCING"

At The Grand
"Fun In a Beauty Parlor" might easily be a substitute title for "Reducing," the new Marie Dressler-Polly Moran co-starring comedy which is the feature tonight at the Grand theater.

"Reducing" lampoons the beauty parlors as "Caught Short" did Wall Street. The motivation of the plot starts when Marie with her whole family and rural mail carrier husband, Lucien Littlefield, comes to visit her sister, the successful "Pauline Rochay," beauty parlor proprietress.

The audience is taken behind the scenes in an establishment where fat women become thin and thin women fat. Marie and Polly have gentle fun with reducing methods and succeed in keeping their admirers in a constant state of quaking mirth.

A strong love story is played out by two pairs of young players—Anita Page and William Bakewell; Sally Eilers and William (Buster) Collier, Jr.

SUNSHINE MELLOWS Heat Purifies

LUCKIES are always kind to your throat

The advice of your physician is: Keep out of doors, in the open air, breathe deeply, take plenty of exercise in the mellow sunshine, and have a periodic check-up on the health of your body.

Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" process includes the use of the Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED"—an extra, secret heating process. Harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos are expelled by "TOASTING." These irritants are sold to others. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat.
